“We have to see beyond the visible and look at things that are invisible. This is what it means to live by faith...”

The Privilege of Ministry

HE WORKS ALL THINGS TOGETHER. . .

FROM THE PHONE CALL TO THE WEDDING

It had been a little while since we'd heard from our friend Climaco, so when he called us and said he needed a favor, could he come over to our house, we were a little nervous. You see we met Climaco while forming the Casa Del Maestro board and immediately fell for his heart, sweetness and genuine humility and outlook on life. Being from the country side his first language was Quechua and in a sense we felt we could relate to him as a foreigner to the city, to its customs, and learning and speaking Spanish as a second language-just like us!

LOOKS LIKE A MOVE IS COMING

We've had a steady drop in our support over the last four months and so, in turn, we are making plans to move house. With the changes in our schedule/living (now spending half the day homeschooling) a different and less expensive place to live would be more beneficial. There's an immediate and pressing need for $1600 and we need your help to reach this goal. Without you, we cannot move forward with this endeavor.

With the bride and groom, Tito & Reyna.

Husbands love your wives as Christ loved the church and gave Himself for it

EPHESIANS 5:25

CLIMACO'S FAVOR

Would we be the “padrinos” in his sister’s wedding? He went on to explain how he wishes his own padrinos were people that he had a better relationship with, people he knew he could go to for counsel or encouragement, and we came to mind for her.

After meeting Tito and Reyna we asked them to participate in pre-marital counseling and we began moving forward from there. After eight weeks of counseling and getting to know one another, the beautiful wedding day arrived. Cusqueñan weddings are all-day events, and this one was held outdoors in the countryside. As padrinos we got to be a part of everything from signing the marriage certificate, to giving the toasts, blessing the food and escorting the couple from the reception to their hotel.

Later reflecting on things, it was a beautiful reminder of how Jesus looks at us. Seeing Tito melt as he saw his bride walk down the aisle, I thought of the wedding as a picture of our own relationship with Lord. There He is waiting for His bride with all the love and adoration a heart could contain. The more time we spend with the Love of our life, the more we can’t help but to fall deeper in love.

THE MINISTRY

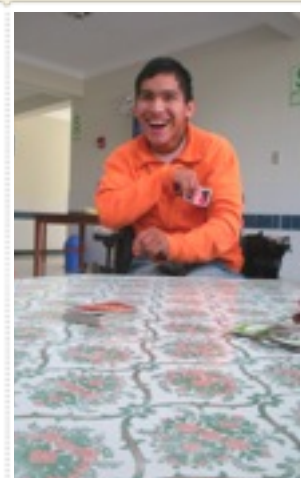

At the moment we are taking a short break from the Bible club ministry after very varied attendance over the past couple of months. Pray with us as we seek direction from the Lord, meanwhile visiting the park to stay familiar with the kids.

We have heard for some time that many of the Peruvians here who have studied English (or are studying now) lack the opportunity to practice, so two weeks ago we opened up the church building and invited people to come and practice with us! Our goal is to use the Bible and our native language as an opportunity to introduce people not just to our church, but to Jesus as well. We call it Conversation Club.

As the ministry is moving forward, we have more and more opportunity to be involved in the lives of others. To walk alongside of them, guiding them in the Lord and teaching them how to better understand and apply His Word, we want to thank you for your part in seeing this vision flourish.

Letty and Hannah have recently started volunteering at a clinic for kids who have Cerebral Palsy.
